Grammar

Use of Articles ('A', 'An' and 'The')

'A' and 'An' are called Indefinite Articles. We use 'A' before a word startin with a consonant or having a consonant sound. We use 'An' before a word starting with a vowel or having a vowel sound.

> Examples: Rohit is a good boy.
> Rohit is eating an apple.

'The' is called a Definite Article. We use 'The' before the names of unique things such as newspapers, holy books, sunrises and mountain peaks.

> Examples: The sun rises in the east.
> He was reading the Gita.

Now, fill in the blanks using 'a', 'an' or 'the'.

1. It is ....a........... good idea.
2. We saw many animals in ....the......... zoo.
3. I can see ....the.......... big tree.
